GORCHES Y PEÑALOSA

MGPS

OUR FIRM

Müggenburg, Gorches y Peñalosa is a law firm formed by highly reputable and experienced attorneys that offers its clients efficient and high-end legal services, with a particular focus on adding value through timely and preventive advice with the objective of satisfying all legal service needs.

360° VISION

Our unique model is based on legal strategies enriched and implemented by trial attorneys, with an integrative vision of corporate and transactional attorneys. Additionally, most of our partners have experience as professors at some of the most reputable law schools in the country. The combination of these factors gives us the distinctive ability to offer our clients a 360° legal approach when required by the particular matter entrusted to us.

GLOBAL FOCUS

Given that most of the matters in which we are involved have simultaneous effects in Mexico and other jurisdictions, one of our greatest assets is our international approach to law. This international approach has been consolidated through our broad multinational client portfolio, as well as the solid expertise that our attorneys have developed over the years through advising on multinational matters in their respective areas of specialization, which has resulted in a substantial renown of our Firm and its legal team.

In this regard, the Firm is and has been representing clients from the most dynamic business sectors, renowned companies included in the “Fortune 500 companies” list and world leaders in their fields.

Most of our attorneys have graduate and post-graduate degrees from universities in the United States of America and Europe and have participated in training programs at some of the most respected law firms abroad; members of our legal team have also worked as in-house counsel for well-known multinational companies.

AREAS OF PRACTICE

MAIN PRACTICE AREAS

CORPORATE

Corporate / Transactional

At Müggenburg, Gorches y Peñalosa we provide legal services in all aspects of corporate law practice. Our group of professionals in this area has years of experience providing services to both national and international clients, with the most diverse needs and the highest standards of demand and sophistication in the service. Among our clientele are leading companies in their sectors worldwide, such as automotive, cosmetics, hotels and tourism, food industry, aeronautical industry, computer programs and systems, suppliers of the oil industry, technology, among others.

We advise our clients on the incorporation of Mexican companies (commercial and civil) and associations, attending to the needs derived from the industry and/or commerce segment in which they focus their activities and their medium and long-term plans, also providing services for compliance with the regulatory requirements that may apply, including those derived from direct foreign investment, economic competition and obtaining the necessary licenses and permits for its transaction.

Our services also extend to the provision of corporate services within the ordinary course of business of our clients, including advice on the preparation, review and negotiation of all types of civil and commercial contracts, and the custody, updating and maintenance of corporate books. We also provide services related to the opening and management of branches in Mexico of foreign companies.

We represent national and foreign corporate and/or investment groups in the acquisition of, and/or merger with Mexican business entities, on other occasions, we also represent the acquired Mexican entities. In both cases, we provide legal audit services to anticipate possible contingencies, identify areas of opportunity and help determine the value of the company to be acquired.

Likewise, in representing the acquirer, we prepare the legal documentation of the transaction (specifically contracts for the sale of shares and/or association, with all its annexes and accessory contracts), and we carry out their negotiation with the counterparty. Likewise, in these cases we participate directly in the processing and obtaining of any authorizations, permits, licenses and concession titles required for the operation of our clients, and we advise on notices and notifications to government entities, including notifications of resolutions and opinions of the Federal Economic Competition Commission.

We provide advisory services for corporate restructuring and reorganization, also including international corporate groups with a presence in Mexico. In these cases, we have worked in coordination with groups of financial and accounting advisors both from Mexico and abroad, and we have coordinated legal audits of subsidiaries of entities acquired in several Latin American countries.

We advise on operations of association in participation, joint ventures, preparation and negotiation of agreements between shareholders, merger and spin-off of legal entities, establishment of trusts of any type, constitution of guarantees on any type of property, repurchase of shares by companies listed on the Mexican Stock Exchange, as well as in the structure of purchase option plans and other types of specialized corporate operations.

We also provide services for the development of mechanisms that allow the efficient and effective anticipation and management of potential conflicts between shareholders; in this regard, we have represented groups of shareholders of Mexican companies in the implementation of corporate actions to defend their interests against the rest of the shareholders and the company itself on internal corporate control issues, generally in coordination with litigation areas in commercial and civil matters.

Depending on each project or operation, we rely on other specialty areas of the Firm, in order to provide comprehensive services, under the highest standards of quality and efficiency.

Mergers & Acquisitions

We provide services in acquisitions, sales, mergers, spin-offs, reorganizations and co-investments, representing national and foreign clients operating in various industrial and commercial sectors.

Restructuring (Corporate and Financial)

Müggenburg, Gorches and Peñalosa's restructuring practice includes representation of corporate debtors, hedge funds, in various industries, etc., in restructuring proceedings and bankruptcy equivalents (insolvency proceedings).

Banking and Finance

Within our banking and finance practice, we have represented both debtors and issuers, as well as creditors and intermediaries, in the granting and restructuring of loans and financing transactions, as well as in the structuring of security mechanisms for such transactions (e.g., trusts, mortgages, commercial pledges, pledges over shares, etc.).

Additionally, we represent financial institutions in complying with regulations applicable to their day-to-day operations, establishing subsidiaries for foreign institutions, and obtaining authorizations for banks, financial intermediaries, and other corporate entities of such institutions.

Private Equity & Venture Capital

Müggenburg, Gorches y Peñalosa, provides comprehensive legal services to clients throughout every stage of the investment life cycle — from fund formation and fundraising to investment exits and capital returns to investors. In these areas, our Firm offers integrated legal services to private equity and venture capital clients, covering a wide range of matters including buyouts, financing, sales and liquidity events, IPOs, structuring, spin-offs, joint ventures, restructurings, work-outs, as well as the formation of funds and fund-of-funds.

Labor & Social Security

Our services focus on all aspects of individual employment relationships, including the drafting and review of employment contracts, regulatory compliance, development of internal policies, and the proactive management of workplace matters. We also provide specialized consulting in labor audits and guidance on the application of Mexican Official Standards (NOMs) in labor matters. These efforts are aimed at strengthening internal management and ensuring full compliance through risk prevention and the implementation of strategies aligned with best corporate practices.

We represent clients in proceedings before Labor Conciliation Centers, prioritizing this stage as an effective mechanism for early dispute resolution. Our services also include representation in individual labor litigation before federal and local Labor Courts, as well as before Conciliation and Arbitration Boards in legacy cases, and in amparo proceedings before the Federal Judiciary.

Estate Planning & Wealth Management

Müggenburg, Gorches y Peñalosa, provides personalized legal advice to individuals seeking to protect their family members and ensure their final wishes are fulfilled, planning strategies that help clients to avoid potential estate litigations, minimizing delays in accessing essential financial resources.

Our firm works with prestigious family offices and international law firms to design optimal estate planning and wealth management strategies. We specialize in creating efficient cross-border structures for clients with international assets.

The team at Müggenburg, Gorches y Peñalosa brings together extensive expertise across key legal areas involved in this practice, including corporate law, real estate, and litigation.

“Müggenburg, Gorches y Peñalosa, has a formidable reputation in the Mexican legal market, thanks to its partners’ technical knowledge in their respective fields. They have strong academic track records as university professors and several have spent time as in-house lawyers, helping them better understand clients’ needs.

This is one of the firm’s key practice groups. The department has advised clients from a range of sectors, including technology, software, automotive, aviation and real estate, while recent work has also seen the outfit advise clients from manufacturing, finance and hygiene sectors. It advised a client from the latter sector on the acquisition of a counterpart in Mexico, including the due diligence.”

LITIGATION

Müggenburg, Gorches y Peñalosa is widely recognized in the field of litigation and dispute resolution in Mexico; its practice includes advising and representing clients before any type of jurisdictional authority. The Firm also has wide recognition in the academic field where some of its members are professors at universities in Mexico. The experience of the litigation area of Müggenburg, Gorches and Peñalosa stands out in the following matters:

Administrative

The large group of professionals dedicated to this branch have formulated and executed comprehensive strategies for the representation and defense of the rights and interests of our clients in all types of legal disputes before any type of jurisdictional authority, at the federal, state and municipal levels.

Antitrust

Our group of professionals in the litigation area have advised and represented various clients in procedures before the Federal Economic Competition Commission, including investigation procedures of monopolistic practices.

Arbitration

Our group of lawyers has actively participated, as counsel for the party, in various alternative dispute resolution procedures.

Civil and Commercial Litigation

The litigation area has also been involved in civil and commercial trials, including commercial bankruptcy proceedings, in which the interests of our clients have been defended in order to demand due compliance with agreed contractual obligations and the eventual payment of damages caused by these breaches. To carry out these actions, in some cases strategies have been developed working in coordination with firms specializing in labor and criminal matters to complement the actions.

“I have never worked with a better team of bilingual experts than them, who translate perfectly—not only the linguistic differences, but also the distinctions between civil law and common law matters. Moreover, the firm makes it easier for U.S. clients to 'navigate' Mexico's cultural and legal traditions.”

Testimonial for Legal 500

Constitutional

The professionals that make up the litigation area have vast and solid experience in dealing with litigation in Constitutional matters, specifically derivative amparo trials and in addition to all actions taken in defense of our clients, in all matters of practice of the Firm; for which we work in close coordination with each of the respective areas.

Cyber Law / Information Technology

We provide comprehensive legal advisory services to our clients in the management of digital risk, regulatory compliance with personal data protection laws, cybersecurity, and the delivery of certification services. Our practice encompasses the handling of a wide range of inquiries, administrative procedures and formal requests before various competent authorities, particularly in relation to the issuance of digital time stamps, data message preservation certificates and digital certificates. Additionally, we assist in the development of internal policies, incident response protocols and the implementation of compliance measures aligned with applicable legal and regulatory frameworks.

Energy and infrastructure

Our firm has represented and defended various clients in the energy industry in defense of their authorizations, permits and licenses granted by the three levels of government, safeguarding the operation and functioning of their facilities. In this regard, the interests of our clients have been successfully defended in disputes initiated by other companies and individuals, even avoiding the interruption of operations due to closure orders. In addition, awards and rulings favorable to the interests of our clients have been defended for the construction of infrastructure for the transportation and distribution of hydrocarbons.

Environmental

The litigation group has extensive experience in resolving conflicts in environmental matters. In this regard, the authorizations, permits and licenses granted by the competent authorities have been successfully defended before State Contentious Courts, the Federal Court of Administrative Justice and the various bodies of the Judicial Power of the Federation, including District Courts and Collegiate Circuit Courts, as well as before the Supreme Court of Justice of the Nation itself.

"Müggenburg, Gorches y Peñalosa has an experienced legal team that provides very comprehensive and practical advice on Mexican law. We appreciate the knowledge and expertise of the firm's lawyers, as well as their responsiveness and follow-through. The firm offers great value and is highly efficient."

Testimonial for Legal 500

Foreign Trade and Customs

Likewise, companies in the pharmaceutical and medical device industries, among others, have been successfully advised and represented in foreign trade disputes related to the import of medical devices, health supplies, raw materials and medicines.

Pharmaceutical, Health Regulatory, Human and Animal Health

Our group of professionals has fully represented and defended various clients in the pharmaceutical sector under the highest ethical and professional standards before multiple administrative and jurisdictional authorities, initiating and continuing the necessary legal actions to require health authorities to monitor and verify products in order to ensure compliance with quality, safety, and efficacy requirements. Likewise, companies in the field of animal health have been advised on the prevention of conflicts related to the products they supply.

Port

The granting of concessions for the operation of port terminals for private use has been successfully defended, proving compliance with the respective requirements.

Public Procurement

Our litigation area has defended the interests of its clients in the pharmaceutical and energy sectors before resolutions issued in government public procurement procedures, either before the administrative authorities themselves or the competent courts.

Tax Law

Also, some of the professionals that make up the litigation area have experience in the substantiation and resolution of controversies in tax matters, including determinations of tax credits and amparo proceedings in order to dispute general regulations on tax matters.

Müggenburg, Gorches y Peñalosa, S.C. (MGPS) has a well-established litigation practice that has been praised for its ‘deep knowledge’ and boasts extensive experience in constitutional litigation—particularly amparo proceedings—as well as administrative litigation.

The firm regularly handles mandates from key industries such as consumer goods, pharmaceuticals, technology, and the financial sector. Its client portfolio is primarily composed of U.S. and international companies, which value the team’s ability to make ‘navigating Mexico’s legal and cultural traditions effortless for U.S. clients’. Esteban Gorches, described as a ‘formidable mind’, and Juan Luis Blanco, a ‘brilliant lawyer’, co-lead the practice, with strong support from senior associate Fernando Sánchez Tarasco."

The Legal 500

Intellectual Property and Entertainment

Our group of professionals has fully represented and defended clients from various branches of the corresponding organizations, including the Federal Court of Administrative Justice and before the various bodies of the Judicial Branch of the Federation, including Courts of District and Collegiate Circuit Courts, as well as before the Supreme Court of Justice of the Nation, demanding respect for their exclusivity rights, challenging any act or administrative resolution that violates them or that implies unfair competition. Likewise, to protect trademark rights, actions have been initiated, including criminal ones, for the falsification of objects that bear our clients' trademarks, as well as to prevent the importation of counterfeit objects.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Our Intellectual Property and Entertainment area is one of the Firm's main practices. Within the development of its activities, the group of professionals that makes up this area has represented a wide variety of companies dedicated to different areas of industry and services at a global level, in a variety of matters related to copyright, trademarks, domain names, patents, industrial secrets and other intellectual property rights.

The practice of this group also includes the development of prior search processes and registration of trademarks and services, the obtaining of patents, the defense of industrial secrets, the registration of all types of copyright and related rights, including programs computer systems, as well as the protection and recovery of domain names and pages and blogs on social networks. Similarly, this group is involved in negotiating various types of contracts in this area, such as the license and transfer of all types of intellectual property rights, franchise contracts, technology transfer and technical assistance, literary publishing contracts and musicals, recognition agreements for paid collaboration, among others.

“Müggenburg, Gorches y Peñalosa houses a respected department with longstanding experience in the IP arena in Mexico. The intellectual property team's core areas of activity include contentious matters such as opposition actions in respect of trademarks and patent infringement disputes. It is also known for its prosecution practice, assisting clients with obtaining patents and maintaining existing IP portfolios. The firm's client roster draws from several industries including consumer goods, technology and pharmaceuticals”.

Chambers Latin America

Additionally, several of the members of this group have actively participated in the entertainment industry during the last thirty years, representing national and foreign studios and content producers, distributors, exhibitors and service providers. We also provide advice to our clients in this sector in the design of corporate and fiscal structures for the pre-production, production, post-production, distribution and exhibition of radio and television programs, audiovisual works and cinematographic films, as well as in their daily operations.

This group also actively participates in the determination and negotiation of royalties for public performance with different public management companies, obtaining licenses for musical productions, as well as in the negotiation of conflicts subject to settlement procedures before Mexican authorities, conciliations and arbitrations, either as party lawyers or arbitrators. Similarly, some members have participated as expert witnesses in copyright and entertainment law in Mexico, in legal proceedings and arbitrations initiated in other jurisdictions.

Likewise, the group is constantly involved in the management of administrative and judicial procedures and contentious resources, including the Amparo Trial in the defense and protection of all types of intellectual property rights, including the processing of criminal actions for the combat of counterfeit products.

"A venerable name in intellectual property in Mexico, Müggenburg, Gorches y Peñalosa is a law firm primarily known for its litigation expertise and litigation skills. It is also highly sought after for trademark protection and overall brand strategy services. Their industry experience is quite broad, with a particular focus on technology, consumer goods, and retail. Regarding recent developments, the firm has continued to invest in and enhance its technological resources to ensure efficient and uninterrupted services for its clients.

As a trusted advisor to many multinationals, founding partner Esteban Gorches Guerrero and Of-Counsel Ana Esther Urquizo form a very strong team, as attested by client feedback: 'Esteban and Ana have handled searches and clearances, filings, oppositions, and anti-piracy matters for us over many years. They have deep knowledge, provide clear and practical advice, are highly responsive to all requests, and keep us updated on the status of all our matters.'

Another says: 'We rely on them for brand strategy advice and find them attentive to our needs and reasonable with their fees. They have perfect command of English and are skilled at handling unusual issues'.

OUR COMMITMENTS

DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

At Müggenburg, Gorches y Peñalosa we are committed to Diversity and Inclusion. At our Firm we understand the importance of fostering a diverse and inclusive culture in our workplace and in our community. Our organizational culture promotes an environment of respectful and supportive teamwork, where all members of our Firm feel accepted for who they are, experience a sense of belonging and are willing to work together across differences, being this plurality what enriches us every day. In our Firm we are committed to hire and promote our personnel based on their skills, experience, and professional values.

We firmly believe that everyone should have equal rights, responsibilities, and opportunities. Furthermore, we believe that everyone should feel comfortable expressing their true selves at work, creating an inclusive internal culture that ensures a sense of value.

We respect and welcome all differences including gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, family status, disabilities, ethnicity, nationality, religious beliefs, cultural background, socio-economic background, and any other potential differences. We do not allow or tolerate discrimination or harassment of any kind.

Müggenburg, Gorches y Peñalosa further believes that societies that value women and men as equals are safer and better. We fully support women lawyers and those who are part of the Firm's administrative staff, as well as part-time positions that allow us to promote a better work environment, and to have a more balanced life in personal and professional terms.

Moreover, we continuously implement strategic plans to support under-resourced individuals aspiring to become attorneys.

PRO-BONO

The Firm acknowledges and promotes the importance of altruistic work and social responsibility and encourages its members to actively participate in the handling of matters with social impact, as well as to provide free legal counsel to non-profit and charitable organizations. We provide Pro-Bono consulting services to various institutions and foundations, such as Barra Mexicana, Colegio de Abogados, A.C., Fundación Barra Mexicana, A.C., Fundación Appleseed México, A.C., Bufete Jurídico Gratuito Social, A.C. (Universidad Panamericana), Colegio Junípero, A.C., Christel House de Mexico, A.C., Pro-Ópera, A.C., and Mexicanos Contra la Corrupción y la Impunidad.

The Firm promotes Pro-Bono work among its members and considers it an enriching process for their professional development in terms of our Career Plan. We have received an award from the United States Agency for International Development (“USAID”) for our Pro-Bono work in Mexico in collaboration with Fundación Appleseed México, A.C.

“Müggenburg Gorches considers the hours associates spend on pro bono as billable and includes pro bono work in career evaluations — part of a drive to encourage associates to do more. It has provided advice to various institutions and foundations, such as Barra Mexicana, Colegio de Abogados, Fundación Barra Mexicana and Fundación Appleseed México.

Müggenburg Gorches is recognised by the US Agency for International Development for its pro bono work. The firm is seen handling amparo claims, helping beneficiaries challenge reforms that allegedly violate human rights enshrined in the Mexican constitution”.
